There is an email going around trying to enlist people to sign up at the Office of the Presidential Prayer Team. I checked this with the RNC and they are not involved. Their IT person checked out the persons behind this and it looks like a scam to collect email addresses using the President's office.

Your shop may want to call this company. This is standard op for our opponents. They gather email addresses of evangelical Christians and then use them to bash the President at an opportune time. This may or may not be one of those times, but nonetheless we should stop folks from using the President's office for their own gain. Thanks.
