MessageBrett- this is the PFA dinner that we discussed awhile ago. Ken and Karl and possibly Judge Gonzales are attending. I believe you were invited as well. Here is a question. Don DiFrancesco is a PFA member and is planning on attending this event. Ken wanted to make sure you were ok with it. thanks.

Here is what I have thus far...

This is going to be very low key- no big speeches- very easy going.

6pm cocktails- if Ken and Karl can make it for this that is great, if not, no problem. We have invited a few other folks from the WH to join us. Just as a thank you for all the help they have done for us. Some may come by for a drink, some may stay for dinner- I just sent out those invites (via e-mail) yesterday.

6:30 dinner- As we are working on the seating arrangement for the table, we will send them over for Ken to approve. I believe it will be a 3-4 course meal. As opposed to big speeches, Tony will welcome everyone at the first course. Then Ken, can make short remarks (3-5 minutes) at the second course. Then Karl at the third course. There won't be a podium or any Q&A, we figure there will be enough opportunity for folks to chat, but this will give each the opportunity to say a few words to the group.

I believe we should be done by 8pm.

I will get you talking points, a guest list, and a more confirmed timeline as we get closer. But again, we are really trying to make this more of a relaxing evening then one with big speeches and lots of hoopla. Please let me know if you need anything else now.

Thanks for your help.
