Subject: President's comments today in Oklahoma at Sen. Inhofe event

And finally, we need to get him back up there so he'll support some judges that I nominated. (Applause.) I found fine people to serve on our bench; good, honorable, honest people. We named one, Priscilla Owen, recently. She's smart, she's capable, one of the top students when she was in law school at Baylor. She got elected twice -- I think twice, but I know she got elected at least twice statewide in Texas, with overwhelming numbers. She's a very, very smart and capable woman. But somehow, some of them up there don't like her. I guess maybe they don't like the fact that I nominated her. But this isn't right for the judicial system, for them to be playing politics with a fine, smart, capable woman. And we need people like Jim Inhofe up there to defend my judicial nominees in Washington, D.C. (Applause.)
