This email came from a friend of mine from growing up who was one of the founders of the Nantucket Nectars juice company (of "Tom and Tom" fame). Anyway, he wants to help. Any thoughts where to point him? I thought you might have an idea.

Hey Brett-

(b)(6)

Was wondering if you could help me with something? George Bush has blown me away. The guy is making history every day. I love his style, his sense of ethics and incredible courage and determination. I'm am overboard patriotic, I love the constitution and am an avid fan of US/World history.

I want to work for this administration and for our country. I have an idea as to how. I have started a business with my wife and a friend. My wife was founder of J Crew. She stepped down as CEO of the company a couple of years ago. My other partner is a film producer who has produced 18 movies including Kids, Scream, Copland, Godzilla and Rudy. Our business is a combination of Entertainment and Marketing. We help our clients market their cause. We are extremely focused. We will have no more than three projects at any one time. Preferably it is one client and one project.

I want to help President Bush promote knowledge of American History. We consider it a great challenge, yet we know we can do this as well or better than anyone in the country. I have no idea how this kind of thing is handled. I am looking for help. This decision may have already been made and may not involve the private sector. I am hoping it does and that it is not too late.

We have access to the best of the best. We are passionate about ethical, honest communication. Performing a task we have the skill, the experience, and more importantly passion to carry off well, would be the professional and patriotic highlight of my career/life.

Please let me know if you can point me in the right direction.

Thanks for your consideration.

Tom Scott
