RE: ANNUAL SOUTHERN LEADERSHIP MEETING—MARCH 8, 2003

We are writing to urge you to join us for an important leadership meeting on the afternoon of Saturday, March 8 in New Orleans to discuss the organization's priorities for the next few months and to develop a plan of action for accomplishing the goals and future work of our Lawyers Division.

As in previous years, one important purpose of this meeting is to identify the current strengths and weaknesses of the Lawyers Division, and, even more importantly, to develop a plan of action for ensuring that the Federalist Society has meaningful, long term impact. This entails having some serious and candid discussions regarding leadership, membership, programs, and other projects. Our hope is that we can share with you some of the national office's experience regarding successful chapter and Practice Group development. But even more importantly, we hope you will be on hand to ask questions, offer criticism, identify concerns, and target legal policy issues that warrant attention. Your first hand experiences with the Society, and, in general, with the legal communities in the South, are a necessary ingredient for developing a workable plan of action for future activity.

In our own experience, these planning sessions do not work unless there is a critical mass of local Federalist Society talent on hand to contribute to the discussion. And, as you can imagine, it will cost the national organization a significant amount of time and resources to organize and attend the meeting. Your participation is therefore vital. We have been extremely pleased with the turnout over the past couple of years, and we hope this year will yield similar interest.

The meeting will take place on Saturday, March 8 from 1:00 p.m. to 6:00 p.m. at the law firm of Jones Walker, 201 Charles Avenue in New Orleans. On Saturday night, following the meeting, we invite you as our guest for dinner at Commander's Palace

For those wishing to stay overnight on Friday or Saturday night, there is a block of rooms reserved at the International House (800-633-5770). Please make your reservations as soon as possible. Also, please complete the attached response form and return it to our office as quickly as possible.
