Subject: Contact Info and Background

Good afternoon all,

I'm finally set up on email correctly - you'll find me listed as J.
Elizabeth Farrell in the address book (a change from yesterday), you can also use JFarrell.
Phone extension is 65942.

Carrie suggested I attach my resume to give you information about my background. Here's a short summary:

2000 - Communications at Bush/Cheney Campaign in Austin (worked in the war room with Brent Greenfield).
2001 - Faith-Based Initiative at HUD
2002 - Faith-Based Initiative at Education Faith-Based Work: Because they were small start up offices, I did everything from policy, legal analysis and regulation reform to outreach, strategic planning and public speaking. While at Education, I developed and executed the initial regional conferences that the White House Faith-Based Office eventually adopted and continues to offer around the country.

Skills:

In college, I had the benefit of several undergrad law classes which covered basic constitutional law, law of politics and judicial process.
These classes and my campaign work gave me extensive experience with Westlaw, Lexis and Nexis.

Issues:

Besides HUD, Education and Faith-Based Issues, I'm extremely interested in International Affairs and International Development. I would be more than happy to aid you in any of your work in these areas.

Future plans likely include a joint-degree program: JD/MA in International Development

I hope this information is helpful. It has been wonderful working with you this last week - please let me know how I can most effectively help you with your work.

Thanks,

Elizabeth
