brett- can ken use the title "political director for president bush" on a political letter? also- i want to make sure that this can't go on white house paper. The only political letter head we have says "President George W. Bush" at the top. I think it looks a little weird for ken to sign on the President's letter head.

Commissioner Dewey Stokes

P6/b6

Dear Dewey,

Thank you very much for all your hard work and support on behalf of the President. Your efforts were critical in electing President Bush; and he and his entire team are grateful.

I understand you are running for re-election for the Franklin County Commission. I wish you the best and please know you have my surest support.

Sincerely,

Ken Mehlman
Political Director for President Bush
