Travel & Lodging

For those flying, we recommend flying into Bradley Airport (BDL) in Hartford, Connecticut. We ask that you pay for your own ticket, then keep the receipts and send them to the national office for reimbursement. Their address is:

The Federalist Society for Law and Public Policy
1015 18th Street NW
Suite 425
Washington, DC 20036

Please let Bert Kwan, our Travel and Lodging manager, know if you wish to stay in a hotel or have made other plans. Those who request hotel lodging will be staying at the Omni in downtown New Haven (near the intersection of Temple and Elm streets). If you are planning to stay at the Omni, please let Bert know how many nights you plan to stay. Also, if you let us know when you will be arriving in Hartford Bert will send someone to pick you up. Bert can be contacted at P6/b(6)

The Banquet

Are you planning to attend the banquet on Saturday night? If so, would you prefer a beef, chicken, or vegetarian entree?

Biography

We would like to include biographies of each speaker in the printed program for conference attendees. To this end, I'd be grateful if you could send me a brief (one paragraph) c.v.

All speakers will soon be getting a call from a student to work out details associated with the respective panels, debate, or roundtable.

Please let me know if you have any other questions.

Sincerely,

Michael Yaeger
Student Symposium Coordinator
