President Hails Progress on Armies of Compassion Agenda

TODAY'S PRESIDENTIAL ACTION

- President Bush met with a bipartisan group of Senators who have introduced the CARE Act – legislation that closely mirrors the President's Armies of Compassion agenda to help America's charities. The President also urged the Senate leadership to move forward with the legislation.

BACKGROUND ON THE PRESIDENT'S ARMIES OF COMPASSION AGENDA

- Last year, the President announced his Armies of Compassion initiative to strengthen charitable organizations in America. Legislation reflecting key elements of the President's initiative -- H.R. 7, the Community Solutions Act, sponsored by Congressmen J.C. Watts (R-OK) and Tony Hall (D-OH) -- passed the House in July by a vote of 233-189.
- In August, the White House Office of Faith-Based and Community Initiatives released the Unlevel Playing Field report. The report was the first comprehensive audit of five Federal agencies and their policies towards community and faith based organizations. The report showed the barriers these groups face in the Federal funding process.
- The CARE Act (Charity Aid, Recovery, and Empowerment)) builds on the good work of the House bill in meeting the key principles of the Armies of Compassion initiative. And, the legislation also includes provisions that help address the specific barriers identified in the Unlevel Playing Field report.
- The Senate legislation meets the President's Armies of Compassion principles in three key ways:
  - (1) Encourages charitable giving through tax incentives.
    - Allows an estimated 84 million taxpayers who do not itemize to deduct their charitable contributions – providing a $400 (individual)/$800 (joint filers) deduction for charitable giving for two years;
    - Allows individuals to make tax-free distributions from their IRAs to charities after the age of 67; and
    - Provides enhanced deductions for farmers and restaurants to donate food to food banks.
  - (2) Addresses principal barriers that faith- and community-based charities face in accessing Federal funds that were identified in the Administration's Unlevel Playing Field report.
    - Requires non-discrimination against non-governmental organizations based on religious grounds, religious iconography, governance, and lack of experience with government contracts;
    - Creates a 501(c)3 "EZ Pass" process to help small, community-based groups get tax-deductible status more easily; and
    - Establishes a $150 million Compassion Capital Fund to educate and empower community-based organizations.
  - (3) Provides needed support for initiatives targeted to vulnerable populations.
    - Authorizes up to $33 million in support for maternity group homes, principally for teenage unwed mothers.

BACKGROUND ON THE CHARITIES CRISIS IN AMERICA

- Many of America's charities have been hit hard in the aftermath of September 11 due to the effects of a weakened economy. A survey by the Independent Sector found that 48% of Americans will reduce their charitable giving if the economic slowdown worsens. The survey also found that 26% of Americans will stop giving or reduce the size of their donations to the charities they normally support due to their recent donation to September 11-related charitable causes.
- Today, the Association of Fund Raising Professionals -- representing more than 25,000 different social service, health and education-related charities -- released a report showing that nearly 45% of its charities reported a decline in gift receipts for the most recent reporting period. According to another study, individual and corporate donations were slashed by as much as $300 million in the Los Angeles area alone for the fourth quarter of 2001.
- President Bush's Armies of Compassion initiative is designed to support charities that provide vital social services for millions of disadvantaged Americans. The President urges the Senate leadership to take up the CARE Act quickly to help address America's charities crisis.
