Brett,

I'm sure congratulations are flying regarding the success of Tuesday's elections! Let me add my congrats to the mix.

I hope you are still able to participate in the debate on judicial selection. We have received confirmation regarding the timing of the debate from the law school administration for 5:30 to 7pm on Tuesday, November 19. If you and Jeff are still available to participate, we will go ahead and start advertising the event to the student body.

Subject: Debate on Judicial Selection at Yale Law School

Brett,

Thank you for agreeing to participate in a debate on judicial selection here at Yale. I think this will be a fabulous event! Jeff Berman is also able to come on November 19, and I am tentatively scheduling the event to last from 5:30 until 7pm. I do not have confirmation from the administration on the time yet, so please do not consider the time to be final. If you have any concerns about the time please let me know.

The Yale Federalist Society will be co-sponsoring the debate along with the Yale Chapter of the American Constitution Society. We will be happy to pay for your travel expenses and for a hotel if you choose to spend the night in New Haven. We would also be honored if you would join us for dinner following the debate. Please let me know what I can do to facilitate your travel arrangements and whether you will be able to join us for dinner.

Best regards,
