Brett- Someone just told me that GOPAC sent out an invite with Ken's name on it and "White House Political Director" as well as Sec. Elaine Chao. As you can see from the emails below, I told them I needed to check with Counsel and even asked if they were sending anything out with his name on it. I called them as soon as you told me he could not participate. I think it was 4/11. Please advise.

No problem. We've had this question asked several times over the years.

Our lawyers have dealt with it on several occasions.

WH Counsel should know,

1. GOPAC is a membership organization
2. The Charter Member's Meeting is not a fundraising event, nor is a fundraising event attached to it.
3. Charter Members, however, are donors to the organization in that they pay a membership fee of $10,000 per year, though we've expanded the membership class this year to include $5,000 and $25,000 members.
4. Ken's name would go the program of events for the two-day Annual Charter Member's Meeting and Chairman's Dinner as a speaker.

Let me know quickly as invites need to go out.

Robb- I am double checking with our Counsel's office to make sure Ken can speak to the Conference. Just so I have all the information, is this meeting a fundraiser or does it involve donors? Thanks.

Are you planning on sending anything out with Ken's name on it? thanks

Ken--

Thanks for meeting Wednesday. JC and I are focused on making GOPAC a major player in the Party. Next steps we discussed were:

1. You would discuss w/ Karl recommendations for GOPAC's board (mainly a finance role) (I'll send GOPAC's current list this afternoon) - a strong Bush person would be a subtle win/win.
2. I would put GOPAC's attorney (Randy Evans) together with your attorney to discuss the permissible scope of GOPAC's activities in '03 and '04 (who is the right person, Michael Toner?)

More immediately, though, JC and I have a huge favor to ask of you on behalf of GOPAC. GOPAC's Charter Member Meetings are April 27/28 in D.C. at the Ritz-Carlton. They begin Sunday afternoon with a senior-level members' meeting (100+ people) and close with a Chairman's Dinner (fundraiser) Monday night (300+ people).

3. Would you address the senior-level membership on Sunday at 4:00 p.m.? (other speakers are Ralph Reed and Frank Luntz)

4. Can you help us get Karen H. to be the Keynote Speaker at the Chairman's Dinner on Monday evening (Ritz-Carlton); she would be ideal to discuss communicating the Republican message; she would give special credibility to GOPAC at JC first Chairman's Dinner; and it would send the right message for JC and Karen to kick things off. JC is going to call her today, as well. We need a quick answer, as invites go out next Tuesday. If Karen is unable, maybe Karl?

Thanks Ken.
