Brett:

Below is a copy of an unauthorized email that the hosts of a fundraising dinner fo 4/22 in KY have been sending out. Not only does it contain several blatant factual inaccuracies and a quote I have never said, it also refers a number of times to the White House.

We have contacted the state party and asked them to make sure the hosts do not send out any more emails or more information without running it by us first.

What do we need to do in the meantime to address the emails already sent?

Republican Party of Kentucky Fundraiser to benefit the
Senate Trust and Constitutional Trust

April 22, 2003

5:30 - 6:30 p.m. VIP Reception $500 per person

6:30 - 8:00 p.m. General Reception $100 per person at the home of

Dick and Joanne Knock
Union, KY

with Special Guest
Collister W. Johnson
Political Adviser to George W. Bush

Collister "Coddy" Johnson, the godson of George W. Bush, was the Regional Political Director for the Bush-Cheney 2000 Campaign which included Kentucky. Coddy is an integral part of the Bush team, spending time with Bush at Camp David and in high level meetings in the White House. As Coddy has said, he will be with Bush at the White House until Bush turns the light off for the last time in the Oval Office.

This event will raise funds for the Republican Party to use in promoting the candidacies of Trey Grayson, Secretary of State nominee for the GOP and Adam Koenig, State Treasurer nominee for the GOP, and to continue to protect and expand the Republican Majority in the Kentucky State Senate.

Deadline to be listed on the invitation as a Host ($500 per person) is close of business Monday, April 7, 2003.

Please reply to this email if you are interested in being a host for this event.
