Friends,

My time here is coming to an end. Friday, February 14th is my last day and I didn't want to miss the opportunity to say goodbye to each and every one of you. This has been the most memorable two years of my professional life for many reasons, one of which is the chance to work alongside such wonderful people. [REDACTED] P6/b(6)

[REDACTED] P6/b(6)

I'm just hopping over to HHS, and for a short time, will temporarily head up the President's HIV and AIDS council, but look forward to some form of communication with you all as I continue working on the President's healthcare agenda.

I haven't confirmed my direct phone number at HHS yet, but can be reached on my cell [REDACTED] P6/b(6) if there are White House issues that need my assistance or you just want to drop a line. My home info remains the same and I truly look forward to the occasional call. Please don't be strangers.

Continue to take care of yourself and the President. I have never met and worked with a better group of people.

Blessings to all,

Josephine
