Jennifer,

Here is a list of Bush 43 appellate nominees who have received unanimous WQ ratings, and who are still pending before the Senate Judiciary Committee:

- Reena Raggi (2d Cir.)
- Priscilla Owen (5th Cir.)
- Susan Neilson (6th Cir.)
- Mike McConnell (10th Cir.)
- John Roberts (D.C. Cir.)
- Miguel Estrada (D.C. Cir.)

Here is a list of appellate nominees since 1943 (the earliest date for which data is available) who received unanimous WQ ratings, but who were voted down in the Senate Judiciary Committee (i.e., who received a committee vote but failed to obtain a favorable recommendation):

None.

During the Clinton Administration, no appellate nominee was voted down in committee. During Bush 41, Kenneth Ryskamp (11th Cir.) failed to receive a positive recommendation from the committee, but he received a split WQ/Q rating. During the Reagan Administration, Bernard Siegan (9th Cir.) failed to receive a positive recommendation, but he had a unanimous Q rating. No appellate nominees were voted down from 1943 through the Reagan Administration.
