And the latest from Tony Mauro and American Lawyer Media:

"With a remarkable degree of unanimity and specificity, knowledgeable sources inside and outside the Bush administration have in recent weeks settled on a set of names of possible nominees who could be picked by President George W. Bush to replace either Chief Justice William Rehnquist or Associate Justice Sandra Day O'Connor."

"The six on the accepted list of potential nominees: White House Counsel Alberto Gonzales; federal appeals court Judges J. Harvie Wilkinson III, J. Michael Luttig, Emilio Garza and Samuel Alito Jr.; and California Supreme Court Justice Janice Rogers Brown."
