Judicial Talking Points

- Over the past five years, President Bush has appointed judges who clearly understand the role of a judge is to interpret the law, not to legislate from the bench. The President's standard for nomination is informed by the oath that each judge takes: to administer justice without respect to persons, and to do equal right to all. His nominees have sterling credentials and have met high standards of legal training, temperament, and judgment.
- As of June 6, 2006, the President has appointed 241 individuals to Article III federal courts (Supreme Court, Circuit, District, and the Court of International Trade). This represents more than one-quarter (27%) of the entire federal judiciary.
- If the 25 (10 circuit; 15 district) nominees pending in the Senate are confirmed, President Bush's appointment rate will be almost identical to President Clinton's and President Reagan's. (At the same time in their administrations, Clinton had appointed approximately 259 and Reagan 266.)
 - Six circuit court nominees are pending in committee: Jim Haynes (Fourth Circuit); Michael Wallace (Fifth Circuit); Bobby Shepherd (Eighth Circuit); Jerome Holmes (Tenth Circuit); Neil Gorsuch (Tenth Circuit); Kimberly Moore (Federal Circuit).
 - Four circuit court nominees are pending on the floor: Terrance Boyle (Fourth Circuit); William Myers (Ninth Circuit); N. Randy Smith (Ninth Circuit); Sandra Ikuta (Ninth Circuit).
 - Eleven district court nominees are pending in committee: Vanessa Lynne Bryant (District of Connecticut); Andrew J. Guilford (Central District of California); Virginia Baker (Central District of California); Philip Gutierrez (Central District California); Marcia Morales Howard (Middle District of Florida); Frances Tydingco-Gatewood (District of Guam); Daniel Jordan (Southern District of Mississippi); Leslie Southwick (Southern District of Mississippi); Frank Whitney (Western District of North Carolina); Gustavo Gelpi (District of Puerto Rico); Francisco Augusto Besosa (District of Puerto Rico).
 - Four district court nominees are pending on the floor: Thomas Ludington (Eastern District Michigan); Sean Cox (Eastern District of Michigan); Noel Lawrence Hillman (District of New Jersey); Peter Sheridan (District of New Jersey).
- President Bush has seen 87% of his nominees confirmed. At the same point in their Presidencies, President Clinton had 80% and President Reagan had 95%. President Bush 41 had 78% confirmed during his term.
- The White House is working diligently to fill all existing and anticipated circuit and district court vacancies—
 - Of the 21 Circuit Court vacancies, the President has made a choice in 18 of them. Ten are in the Senate, 8 are in clearance.
 - Of the 45 District Court vacancies, the President has made a choice in 31 of them. Fifteen are in the Senate, 16 are in clearance. Of the remaining 14 vacancies, we are currently awaiting recommendations from home state senators in 9 of them.

REPORT TO THE CABINET
FOR THE WEEK BEGINNING WITH MAY 8, 2006

PRESIDENTIAL REMARKS

President's Radio Address (May 6, 2006)

Good morning. Today I want to talk with you about the new Medicare prescription drug coverage that went into effect at the start of this year. Everyone on Medicare is eligible for this new coverage, but the enrollment deadline of May 15th is just over a week away. For those of you with Medicare who have not yet signed up, it is important for you to review your options and choose a plan. By enrolling before the deadline, you can ensure the lowest possible premiums and start saving on your prescription drug bills. Click Here for Complete Text

President Bush Delivers Commencement Address at Oklahoma State University (May 6, 2006)

Thank you all very much. President Schmidly, thank you. Members of the Oklahoma State faculty and administration; Governor; people in the Statehouse; members of the United States Congress; distinguished guests; parents, friends, family, and most important, the Class of 2006, thanks for the warm welcome to this great state, and to this fine campus. I'm honored to be here. Click Here for Complete Text

President Nominates General Michael Hayden as Director of the Central Intelligence Agency (May 8, 2006)

Good morning. Today I'm pleased to nominate General Mike Hayden as the next Director of the Central Intelligence Agency. Mike Hayden is supremely qualified for this position. I've come to know him well as our nation's first Deputy Director of National Intelligence. In that position, he's worked closely with our Director of National Intelligence, John Negroponte, to reform America's intelligence capabilities to meet the threats of a new century. President Discusses Peace Agreement in Sudan (May 8, 2006)

I want to thank Secretary of State Condoleezza Rice for joining me, and I also want to thank Deputy Secretary of State Bob Zoellick. He has just briefed me on his trip to Abuja, where he has played a very important role in setting up a peace agreement between the government of Sudan and a major rebel group in the Darfur region. Congratulations on a job well done, Bob. Thank you. Last week we saw the beginnings of hope for the people of Darfur. Click Here for Complete Text

President Bush and Governor Bush Visit Fire Station in Florida (May 9, 2006)

Jeb and I just were briefed by the firefighters here about the dry conditions that are creating hazards for the people, and Kelley, I appreciate your briefing. He was in charge of putting out that fire yesterday that consumed 450 acres. They think it was caused by a spark out of one of the utility lines. I've always been impressed by those who are willing to get out and fight the fires, and save lives and save property. I'm surrounded by people who made a career out of that. And I want to thank them for their dedication to service, I want to thank them for the briefing about the threat we find ourselves in, we've got dry and windy conditions. President Bush Discusses Medicare Prescription Drug Benefit (May 9, 2006)

What I thought I would do is spend a little time talking about the new Medicare program. The reason I'm doing this, because I want people to sign up. And then I'll answer some questions if you have some. And then I'm going to go to Orlando and do the same thing tomorrow morning -- just like I did earlier in South Florida. And the reason why I'm doing this is because we have changed Medicare for the better, but sometimes change creates anxieties. In other words, people say, well, maybe I don't want to change. I kind of like it the way things are, but we have a duty to educate people and give them a chance to see what's available. And that's what I'm doing. That's what you want your President to do. President Bush and Health and Human Services Secretary Leavitt Make Remarks to the Travel Pool (May 9, 2006)

I want to thank you all for joining us. I'm proud to be here with Secretary Leavitt. We're traveling the country reminding people that there's a fantastic opportunity for our seniors, and that is Medicare now offers a prescription drug benefit that will save people a lot of money. We just visited with some of our citizens inside there, and they're talking about significant savings. And that's what we want, we want our seniors to be able to have modern medicine. So far a lot of seniors have signed up. It's coming down the stretch toward the May 15th deadline; we want everybody to sign up. We want people to understand that they're going to save a lot of money when it comes to prescription drugs. Click Here for Complete Text

President Bush Meets with Victims of Identity Theft (May 10, 2006)

Identity theft is a serious problem in America. I have just listened to the horror stories from fellow citizens who have had their identities stolen. I listened to their ideas about how the federal government can help in the response in not only dealing with those who commit the crime, but helping those who have been victimized. And I want to thank you all for joining us. Click Here for Complete Text

President Bush Participates in Conversation on Medicare Prescription Drug Benefit in Florida (May 10, 2006)

I'm here to talk about Medicare. We've got an exciting program and an exciting opportunity for people to improve their lives. So this is an educational forum. This is a chance not only to speak to the folks here, but to those who may be watching on TV about a really interesting opportunity for the seniors all around our country to really improve their lives by signing up for a new opportunity in Medicare. President Bush Discusses NSA Surveillance Program (May 11, 2006)

After September the 11th, I vowed to the American people that our government would do everything within the law to protect them against another terrorist attack. As part of this effort, I authorized the National Security Agency to intercept the international communications of people with known links to al Qaeda and related terrorist organizations. In other words, if al Qaeda or their associates are making calls into the United States or out of the United States, we want to know what they're saying. Click Here for Complete Text

PRESIDENTIAL STATEMENTS

President Disappointed in Senate Failure to Pass Real Medical Liability Reform (May 8, 2006)

I am disappointed that the Senate has yet again failed to pass real medical liability reform legislation. Unwilling to take on their trial lawyer supporters, the Democrats led this effort to block these much-needed reforms. Junk lawsuits are driving too many good doctors out of medicine. Women in nearly 1,500 counties are without a single OB-GYN, and frivolous and abusive lawsuits are encouraging the use of defensive medicine, which imposes substantial and unnecessary costs on all Americans. This is a national problem that deserves a national solution. I have called on Congress to pass responsible medical liability reforms, and the House of Representatives has acted. It is time for the Senate to put the needs of the American people ahead of the interests of trial lawyers and pass meaningful medical liability reform legislation.

President Urges Senate to Pass Tax Cut Legislation (May 10, 2006)

The tax cuts we passed in recent years are working to fuel America's economic expansion. Our pro-growth policies have helped the economy create more than 5.2 million jobs since August of 2003, and last year our economy grew faster than that of any other major industrialized nation. By extending key Capital Gains and Dividends tax relief, the House has taken an important step to continue to help hard-working Americans and to keep our economy strong and growing. I appreciate the House Leadership and Chairman Bill Thomas for their hard work. I urge the Senate to vote swiftly so that I can sign this bill into law and put a stop to a massive tax hike that would be disastrous for small businesses, our economy, and all working Americans.

President Applauds Senate for Passing Tax Relief Legislation (May 11, 2006)

I applaud the Senate for passing important tax relief that will help keep our economy strong and growing. This legislation prevents an enormous tax hike that the American people do not want and would not welcome. The bill will extend policies that have helped our economy flourish. We have had 18 straight quarters of growth, including 4.8 percent growth in the last quarter, and the unemployment rate is 4.7 percent. I appreciate the Senate Leadership and Chairman Grassley for their hard work on behalf of American taxpayers and small businesses, and I look forward to signing this important legislation into law.

President and Mrs. Bush Saddened by Death of Sonny Montgomery (May 12, 2006)

Laura and I and the entire Bush family are saddened by the death of a good friend and patriot, Sonny Montgomery. Sonny Montgomery served during World War II and the Korean War, and he was a tireless advocate for America's veterans throughout his three decades in the House of Representatives. He sponsored the Montgomery GI Bill, which has helped make higher education and professional training accessible to millions of our veterans. In 2005, he was awarded the Presidential Medal of Freedom, the Nation's highest civil award, in recognition of his lifetime of service to the United States. We send our condolences and prayers to the Montgomery family.

Judicial Talking Points

- Over the past five years, President Bush has appointed judges who clearly understand the role of a judge is to interpret the law, not to legislate from the bench. The President's standard for nomination is informed by the oath that each judge takes: to administer justice without respect to persons, and to do equal right to all. His nominees have sterling credentials and have met high standards of legal training, temperament, and judgment.
- As of May 15, 2006, the President has appointed 239 individuals to Article III federal courts (Supreme Court, Circuit, District, and the Court of International Trade). This represents more than one-quarter (27%) of the entire federal judiciary.
- If the 24 (10 circuit; 14 district) nominees pending in the Senate are confirmed, President Bush's appointment rate will be almost identical to President Clinton's and President Reagan's. (At the same time in their administrations, Clinton had appointed approximately 255 and Reagan 263.)
 - Five circuit court nominees are pending in committee: Jim Haynes (Fourth Circuit); Michael Wallace (Fifth Circuit); Sandra Ikuta (Ninth Circuit); Jerome Holmes (Tenth Circuit); Neil Gorsuch (Tenth Circuit).
 - Five circuit court nominees are pending on the floor: Terrance Boyle (Fourth Circuit); William Myers (Ninth Circuit); Milan D. Smith, Jr. (Ninth Circuit); N. Randy Smith (Ninth Circuit); Brett Kavanaugh (D.C. Circuit).
 - Eight district court nominees are pending in committee: Vanessa Lynne Bryant (District of Connecticut); Andrew J. Guilford (Central District of California); Virginia Baker (Central District of California); Philip Gutierrez (Central District California); Frances Tydingco-Gatewood (District of Guam); Daniel Jordan (Southern District of Mississippi); Frank Whitney (Western District of North Carolina); Gustavo Gelpi (District of Puerto Rico).
 - Six district court nominees are pending on the floor: Thomas Ludington (Eastern District Michigan); Sean Cox (Eastern District of Michigan); Renee Marie Bumb (District of New Jersey); Noel Lawrence Hillman (District of New Jersey); Susan Davis Wigenton (District of New Jersey); Peter Sheridan (District of New Jersey).
- President Bush has seen 87% of his nominees confirmed. At the same point in their Presidencies, President Clinton had 82% and President Reagan had 95%. President Bush 41 had 78% confirmed during his term.
- The White House is working diligently to fill all existing and anticipated circuit and district court vacancies—
 - Of the 23 Circuit Court vacancies, the President has made a choice in 19 of them. Ten are in the Senate, 9 are in clearance.
 - Of the 45 District Court vacancies, the President has made a choice in 31 of them. Fourteen are in the Senate, 17 are in clearance. Of the remaining 14 vacancies, we are currently awaiting recommendations from home state senators in 13.

PRESIDENTIAL REMARKS

President's Radio Address (May 6, 2006)

Good morning. Today I want to talk with you about the new Medicare prescription drug coverage that went into effect at the start of this year. Everyone on Medicare is eligible for this new coverage, but the enrollment deadline of May 15th is just over a week away. For those of you with Medicare who have not yet signed up, it is important for you to review your options and choose a plan. By enrolling before the deadline, you can ensure the lowest possible premiums and start saving on your prescription drug bills. Click Here for Complete Text

Thank you all very much. President Schmidly, thank you. Members of the Oklahoma State faculty and administration; Governor; people in the Statehouse; members of the United States Congress; distinguished guests; parents, friends, family, and most important, the Class of 2006, thanks for the warm welcome to this great state, and to this fine campus. President Nominates General Michael Hayden as Director of the Central Intelligence Agency (May 8, 2006)

Good morning. Today I'm pleased to nominate General Mike Hayden as the next Director of the Central Intelligence Agency. Mike Hayden is supremely qualified for this position. I've come to know him well as our nation's first Deputy Director of National Intelligence. In that position, he's worked closely with our Director of National Intelligence, John Negroponte, to reform America's intelligence capabilities to meet the threats of a new century. President Discusses Peace Agreement in Sudan (May 8, 2006)

I want to thank Secretary of State Condoleezza Rice for joining me, and I also want to thank Deputy Secretary of State Bob Zoellick. He has just briefed me on his trip to Abuja, where he has played a very important role in setting up a peace agreement between the government of Sudan and a major rebel group in the Darfur region. Congratulations on a job well done, Bob. Thank you. Last week we saw the beginnings of hope for the people of Darfur. Click Here for Complete Text

President Bush and Governor Bush Visit Fire Station in Florida (May 9, 2006)

Jeb and I just were briefed by the firefighters here about the dry conditions that are creating hazards for the people, and Kelley, I appreciate your briefing. He was in charge of putting out that fire yesterday that consumed 450 acres. They think it was caused by a spark out of one of the utility lines. I've always been impressed by those who are willing to get out and fight the fires, and save lives and save property. I'm surrounded by people who made a career out of that. And I want to thank them for their dedication to service, I want to thank them for the briefing about the threat we find ourselves in, we've got dry and windy conditions. President Bush Discusses Medicare Prescription Drug Benefit (May 9, 2006)

What I thought I would do is spend a little time talking about the new Medicare program. The reason I'm doing this, because I want people to sign up. And then I'll answer some questions if you have some. And then I'm going to go to Orlando and do the same thing tomorrow morning -- just like I did earlier in South Florida. And the reason why I'm doing this is because we have changed Medicare for the better, but sometimes change creates anxieties. In other words, people say, well, maybe I don't want to change. I kind of like it the way things are, but we have a duty to educate people and give them a chance to see what's available. And that's what I'm doing. That's what you want your President to do. President Bush and Health and Human Services Secretary Leavitt Make Remarks to the Travel Pool (May 9, 2006)

I want to thank you all for joining us. I'm proud to be here with Secretary Leavitt. We're traveling the country reminding people that there's a fantastic opportunity for our seniors, and that is Medicare now offers a prescription drug benefit that will save people a lot of money. We just visited with some of our citizens inside there, and they're talking about significant savings. And that's what we want, we want our seniors to be able to have modern medicine. So far a lot of seniors have signed up. It's coming down the stretch toward the May 15th deadline; we want everybody to sign up. We want people to understand that they're going to save a lot of money when it comes to prescription drugs. Click Here for Complete Text

President Bush Meets with Victims of Identity Theft (May 10, 2006)

Identity theft is a serious problem in America. I have just listened to the horror stories from fellow citizens who have had their identities stolen. I listened to their ideas about how the federal government can help in the response in not only dealing with those who commit the crime, but helping those who have been victimized. And I want to thank you all for joining us. Click Here for Complete Text

PRESIDENTIAL STATEMENTS

President Disappointed in Senate Failure to Pass Real Medical Liability Reform (May 8, 2006)

I am disappointed that the Senate has yet again failed to pass real medical liability reform legislation. Unwilling to take on their trial lawyer supporters, the Democrats led this effort to block these much-needed reforms. Junk lawsuits are driving too many good doctors out of medicine. Women in nearly 1,500 counties are without a single OB-GYN, and frivolous and abusive lawsuits are encouraging the use of defensive medicine, which imposes substantial and unnecessary costs on all Americans. This is a national problem that deserves a national solution. I have called on Congress to pass responsible medical liability reforms, and the House of Representatives has acted. It is time for the Senate to put the needs of the American people ahead of the interests of trial lawyers and pass meaningful medical liability reform legislation.

President Urges Senate to Pass Tax Cut Legislation (May 10, 2006)

The tax cuts we passed in recent years are working to fuel America's economic expansion. Our pro-growth policies have helped the economy create more than 5.2 million jobs since August of 2003, and last year our economy grew faster than that of any other major industrialized nation. By extending key Capital Gains and Dividends tax relief, the House has taken an important step to continue to help hard-working Americans and to keep our economy strong and growing. I appreciate the House Leadership and Chairman Bill Thomas for their hard work. I urge the Senate to vote swiftly so that I can sign this bill into law and put a stop to a massive tax hike that would be disastrous for small businesses, our economy, and all working Americans.

President Applauds Senate for Passing Tax Relief Legislation (May 11, 2006)

I applaud the Senate for passing important tax relief that will help keep our economy strong and growing. This legislation prevents an enormous tax hike that the American people do not want and would not welcome. The bill will extend policies that have helped our economy flourish. We have had 18 straight quarters of growth, including 4.8 percent growth in the last quarter, and the unemployment rate is 4.7 percent. I appreciate the Senate Leadership and Chairman Grassley for their hard work on behalf of American taxpayers and small businesses, and I look forward to signing this important legislation into law.

President and Mrs. Bush Saddened by Death of Sonny Montgomery (May 12, 2006)

Laura and I and the entire Bush family are saddened by the death of a good friend and patriot, Sonny Montgomery. Sonny Montgomery served during World War II and the Korean War, and he was a tireless advocate for America's veterans throughout his three decades in the House of Representatives. He sponsored the Montgomery GI Bill, which has helped make higher education and professional training accessible to millions of our veterans. In 2005, he was awarded the Presidential Medal of Freedom, the Nation's highest civil award, in recognition of his lifetime of service to the United States. We send our condolences and prayers to the Montgomery family.
