FOIA 2014-0198-F[1] requested emails sent and received by the George W. Bush Administration that mention MoveOn.org or MoveOn.

The first segment of this FOIA consists of emails containing newspaper articles or portions thereof; press releases; mass-distributed emails from MoveOn; talking points; final drafts of speeches; compilations of factual information about outside interest groups; transcripts of public Congressional testimony and portions thereof; factual emails about protestors at various events; published policy papers; newsletters; fact sheets; petitions; vetting results; lists of resources for individuals affected by hurricanes; transcripts of television and radio programs; schedules; and correspondence with members of the press.

The bulk of the records consist of newspaper articles, quotations from websites, newsletters, and talking points related to MoveOn or rebutting MoveOn statements about various policies of the George W. Bush administration. These policies include Social Security reform, the war in Iraq, judicial nominations, legislative reform related to 527 organizations, Medicare, Karl Rove's speeches and other activities on behalf of the administration, and General David Petraeus's testimony to Congress.
