
From: Peter.Schaumber@nlrb.gov
Sent: Tuesday, January 25, 2005 12:59 PM
To: Edmund_C._Moy@who.eop.gov
Subject: Neil Gorsuch

Ed -

Neil Gorsuch told me that he had met with you and Jan Williams. In response to which I volunteered - rather firmly - that I wanted to e-mail you about him.

I met Neil when I was president of the Republican National Lawyers Association. I asked him to be co-chair of a committee to support the President's judicial nominations. We worked together with Barbara Ledeen, Senator Santorum's staff person on that issue. He and I - and Barbara - have become friends.

His resume of legal and scholarly accomplishments speaks for itself (although it may not reflect that Princeton - through Robert George - recently agreed to publish his doctoral thesis from Oxford). While I suspect you may have been able to detect all of this during his interview, I want to confirm for you that Neil is seasoned and mature. He has superb judgment always expressed in a calm and deliberate manner. He is also married to a charming English lady who has a marvelous sense of humor; they have two young daughters.

Neil will be an outstanding appointment for whatever position he is chosen.

Look forward to seeing you the 12th.

All the best,
Peter

New Email Message

From: Moy, Edmund C.
Sent: Tuesday, January 25, 2005 1:15 PM
To: Peter.Schaumber@nlrb.gov
Subject: RE: Neil Gorsuch

Thanks Peter. Always good to get feedback from one of our own.

-----Original Message-----

From: Peter.Schaumber@nlrb.gov [mailto:Peter.Schaumber@nlrb.gov]
Sent: Tuesday, January 25, 2005 12:59 PM
To: Moy, Edmund C.
Subject: Neil Gorsuch

Ed -

Neil Gorsuch told me that he had met with you and Jan Williams. In response to which I volunteered - rather firmly - that I wanted to e-mail you about him.

I met Neil when I was president of the Republican National Lawyers Association. I asked him to be co-chair of a committee to support the President's judicial nominations. We worked together with Barbara Ledeen, Senator Santorum's staff person on that issue. He and I - and Barbara - have become friends.

His resume of legal and scholarly accomplishments speaks for itself (although it may not reflect that Princeton - through Robert George - recently agreed to publish his doctoral thesis from Oxford). While I suspect you may have been able to detect all of this during his interview, I want to confirm for you that Neil is seasoned and mature. He has superb judgment always expressed in a calm and deliberate manner. He is also married to a charming English lady who has a marvelous sense of humor; they have two young daughters.

Neil will be an outstanding appointment for whatever position he is chosen.

Look forward to seeing you the 12th.

All the best,
Peter

New Email Message

From: Becker, Amanda
Sent: Tuesday, April 12, 2005 5:41 PM
To: jan.williams@usdoj.gov; John.Eddy@usdoj.gov
Cc: Henderson, Katherine C.; Myers, Julie L.
Subject: Preliminary Clearance - DOJ

The following candidate has been approved for a SES position at DOJ:

Neil Gorsuch

Should you choose to hire this appointee, please fax the remaining permanent paperwork to 202/456-6615 and make sure the candidate has submitted an on-line application. Once all paperwork is received and the candidate is online, Office of Personnel Management will be notified of approval and you can issue a start date. Candidates should not begin working until all paperwork is received by PPO and OPM has been notified.

Thank you for your help.