- Upcoming Economic Indicator Releases from Commerce:
Construction Spending: July 2003 (September 3)
Manufacturers' Shipments, Inventories, and Orders: July 2003 (September 4)

OFFICE OF NATIONAL DRUG CONTROL POLICY

Press Activity:

- National Household Survey on Drug Use and Health Data with HHS.
The National Household Survey on Drug Use and Health will be released on September 5. This completely redesigned instrument reflecting 2002 data represents the first year of new data and will form the baseline for your goal of reducing adult use of drugs by 10 percent in two years and 25 percent in five years. A significant finding of this survey is the widespread diversion of prescription drugs to illegal uses.
- Partnership Attitude Tracking Survey.
On September 3, surveys will be released by PRIDE Youth Programs and the Partnership Attitude Tracking Survey that will show a slight increase in some drugs among teenagers in 2002. At the same time, youth who have had a greater exposure to anti-drug ads have become more disapproving of drugs.

DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION

- Teacher Assistance Corps to Visit States.
The newly formed Teacher Assistance Corps, composed of practitioners, state officials, and national experts, will be supporting States in implementation of the highly qualified teacher requirements in the No Child Left Behind Act. Many states are still developing their definition of a highly qualified teacher as well as their standards for evaluating existing teachers. The Corps will visit each state and compile a list of best practices and innovative approaches, which will be distributed to each State. The first visits are tentatively set for September in Oregon, Tennessee, and Illinois.
- Office for Civil Rights (OCR) Ends North Carolina Investigation.
On August 29, 2003, the Department of Education will announce via letter that OCR has concluded its investigation of three complaints against the Wake County Public School System. The complainants claimed that the District adopted student socio-economic status (SES) as a discriminatory proxy for race and national origin, discriminated in denying application to magnet/year-round programs, and improperly required applicants to disclose their gender. OCR concluded that the District's use of SES in the assignment of students to schools and in the selection of magnet/year-round program applicants complies with Title VI. OCR determined that the District adopted SES as a student assignment factor to further legitimate educational goals and not as a proxy for racial definition, or for a racial purpose. We expect this decision to generate significant media attention.

DEPARTMENT OF ENERGY

- US-Canada Task Force Continues Investigation into North American Power Blackout.
The International Task Force you formed along with Canadian Prime Minister Chretien will continue its efforts to investigate the blackout of August 14. The US-Canada Task Force will hold a teleconference again this week to get an update from investigators.

ENVIRONMENTAL PROTECTION AGENCY

- EPA to Amend Emissions Standard for Aircraft Engines.
During the week of September 1, EPA is publishing a proposed rule to amend the existing oxides of nitrogen standards for new commercial aircraft gas turbine engines. These new standards would bring the U.S. emission standards into alignment with the internationally adopted standards of the International Civil Aviation Organization. Some states and environmental and public interest groups may object to the proposed rule because the revision will result in minimal emission reductions.
- EPA to Deny Petition on Regulating Ballast Water.
On September 2, EPA will issue its decision denying a petition to repeal the Clean Water Act (CWA) regulatory provision that excludes from the National Pollutant Discharge Elimination System permitting requirements certain discharges that are incidental to the normal operation of a vessel, including ballast water. Ballast water arrives in the U.S. at a rate of 2 million gallons per hour and the associated invasive species are estimated to cost $137 billion per year. EPA anticipates an unfavorable reaction from the petitioners and other environmental groups. Industry, Federal agencies, and states are expected to react favorably or to be neutral.
- Voluntary Cancellation of Insecticide's Food Uses Lowers Risk.
In early September, EPA will publish a notice announcing that the makers (Cheminova, Inc., BASF, Gowan, Drexel, and Microflo) of the insecticide dimethoate have requested voluntary cancellation of many food crop uses. EPA is reviewing dimethoate as part of its cumulative risk assessment of the organophosphate (OP) pesticides, a group of pesticides given priority for review because they share a common mechanism of toxicity. Although alternative pesticides exist, some growers are expected to be concerned.

DEPARTMENT OF HEALTH AND HUMAN SERVICES

- SCHIP Eligible Children in Texas May Experience Benefit Reductions.
The Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Services (CMS) is currently reviewing a Texas amendment that would, if approved, sharply reduce and limit mental health benefits for children eligible for SCHIP (State Children's Health Insurance Program). The proposed amendment has generated opposition from state and national advocacy groups.
- Texas' Welfare Claims for Foster Children Audited by HHS.
The Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Services (CMS) at HHS is questioning approximately $14 million in Medicaid claims that have been paid for child welfare services in the foster care system. CMS intends to release a draft report to the State. The State will have an opportunity to respond to the findings.
- Update on West Nile Virus.
There have been 750 reported and verified cases of the West Nile Virus to date, with 15 human fatalities in eight states: Alabama, Kansas, Mississippi, Nebraska, New Mexico, Ohio, South Dakota and Texas.
- FDA to Approve Oral Contraceptive in September.
The Food and Drug Administration (FDA) is set to approve the drug Seasonale for the prevention of pregnancy. Seasonale is a 91-day oral contraceptive regimen that is taken for 12 weeks, followed by one week of inert pills. Seasonale will be the first oral contraceptive approved for use beyond a 28-day regimen. The sponsor of the application is Barr Laboratories. This information should be treated as confidential.

DEPARTMENT OF HOMELAND SECURITY

- Homeland Security Initiatives.
On September 2, Secretary Ridge will speak to the American Enterprise Institute on ways to improve homeland security, which includes an initiative called "One Face at the Border." This initiative will bring together all of the ports of entry inspectors under a single chain of command. These inspectors will now have a new job classification as Customs and Border Protection Officers with a single job description and unified responsibilities for immigration, customs and basic agricultural inspections. Secretary Ridge will also introduce a second initiative, which will transfer the Federal Air Marshals program from the Transportation Security Administration (TSA) to the Bureau of Immigration and Customs Enforcement (BICE). Since BICE deals more with investigative matters, the move is expected to strengthen the program by expanding the job responsibilities beyond providing security on flights alone, thus increasing long-term job attractiveness.

Press Activity:

- Interview with NPR.
National Public Radio (NPR) will interview Secretary Ridge on September 2 on the progress of securing the homeland since September 11, 2001.

DEPARTMENT OF HOUSING AND URBAN DEVELOPMENT

- HUD Leads Interagency Effort on Sale of Government Homes.
The Office of Management and Budget has approved, in concept, an interagency effort that will focus on the sale of government-owned single-family homes. It is expected that HUD will provide funding and leadership for the joint effort between HUD, the Department of Veterans Affairs, and the Department of Agriculture to develop a common Internet portal for the sale of these homes. The implementation of this proposal will facilitate the government-wide e-government initiative for Federal Asset Sales, as the three participating agencies hold the vast majority of single-family properties owned by the Federal government.
- Due to Blackout, HUD and DOL Extend Deadline for Homeless to Apply for Help.
Due to the impact of the recent electric power blackout in the Northeast, HUD and the Department of Labor have agreed to extend by five days the submission deadline for applicants under the $13.5 million HUD/DOL initiative that combines HUD permanent housing and specialized DOL employment services for chronically homeless persons. The Federal Register notice of funds availability was issued July 18, and the deadline for application submission was August 25. Awards are expected to be announced by both departments in September.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR

- New Trinity River Flows to Protect Salmon (California).
The Department has announced a fall release schedule for the Trinity River to use if salmon populations would be damaged without additional flows. This release is a cooperative effort among agencies, tribes and stakeholders in the Klamath/Trinity Basin. It is designed to allow above-average populations of the Trinity River Chinook salmon to migrate upriver and reduces the potential for increased transmission of disease in the Lower Klamath River.
- Bureau of Land Management Finds Uranium on Public Lands (Nevada).
New evidence reveals the presence of concentrations of unrecovered uranium in the evaporation ponds and tailings on both private and public lands at the Yerington mine in Nevada. The site is an abandoned copper mine with mixed surface land ownership. The uranium may pose a potential or immediate health risk to the public and the environment.

- Attorney General Continues “Preserving Life and Liberty” Tour.

From September 5 to 6 the Attorney General will travel to Tampa, FL, Atlanta, GA, Norfolk, VA, Raleigh-Durham, NC, and Lexington, KY in support of the War on Terror and the USA PATRIOT Act. In each location he will talk to local, state and Federal law enforcement officers about the critical tools provided in the PATRIOT Act that are being used in the war on terror, the unprecedented cooperation among Federal, state and local law enforcement, and the successes achieved thus far in the war on terror. All events will be open press.

- U.S. to File Brief in Tax Partnership Case.

The Department will file a brief as petitioner in United States v. Galletti on September 5. The question presented is whether, in order to enforce the derivative liability of partners for the tax debts of their partnership, the United States must make a separate assessment of the taxes owed by the partnership against each of the partners directly. The position of the United States is that a separate assessment need not be made against each of the partners directly.

Press Activity:

- Coverage of Attorney General Traveling to Speak in Support of USA PATRIOT Act.

Continued coverage is expected of the Attorney General’s speeches on the USA PATRIOT Act. The Attorney General will participate in one-on-one media interviews in each city he visits as part of this effort.
