I agree with all of that. I actually think a signed baseball would be a good touch for staff departures, but starting that now is tough and containing it would be tough.

I actually like the idea of a signed baseball for departures – but after discussing it with the powers that be, we are convinced this is a no-go and that the boss would be concerned about the precedent. Tevi will get a letter (after he sends in his resignation letter) and a signed departure photo. Sorry and thanks for understanding.
