Brett just called and the president told him 8am brief at the house tomorrow morning. They thought you might could come to the trailer first at about 7:30am and pick up hadley and then you could go to the house together. Call them in the trailer in the am if you prefer to do it differently. Thanks!

Blake may have told you all this earlier but we weren't so sure b/c usually blake notifies you.

Thanks. Blake mentioned it earlier, but please keep me in the loop because, as always, Hq has yet to let me know. I guess they think I like the thrill of hearing the plan in the middle of the night.
