Material at the George W. Bush Presidential Library Pertaining To International Economics and Trade

Introduction

This guide includes the principle files at the George W. Bush Presidential Library that contain material relating to international economics and trade that have been processed and are available for research. It is not definitive, however, and researchers should consult with the Library's archivists about other potentially useful files.

This guide identifies materials that have been opened for research through systematic processing or under a Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) request. Check the George W. Bush Library website, as it is constantly updated with new finding aids and digitized content. If records are available digitally, a link has been provided.

To key-word search digitized content from across the National Archives and Records Administration, visit the National Archives Catalog. To see material exclusively from the George W. Bush Presidential Library, perform an Advanced Search selecting George W. Bush Library as the Location of Archival Materials.

Preferred Citation for records of the George W. Bush Presidential Library: Type of document; names of sender and recipient, or title of document; date; folder title or White House Office of Records Management Subject Code and case number; box number; Collection Title and series/subseries, George W. Bush Presidential Library.

White House Office of Records Management (ORM)
