Material at the George W. Bush Presidential Library Pertaining To Hurricane Katrina

Introduction

This guide includes the principle files at the George W. Bush Presidential Library that contain material relating to Hurricane Katrina that have been processed and are available for research. It is not definitive, however, and researchers should consult with the Library's archivists about other potentially useful files.

This guide identifies materials that have been opened for research through systematic processing or under a Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) request. Check the George W. Bush Presidential Library website, as it is constantly updated with new finding aids and digitized content. If records are available digitally, a link has been provided.

To keyword search digitized content from across the National Archives and Records Administration, visit the National Archives Catalog. To see material exclusively from the George W. Bush Presidential Library, perform an Advanced Search selecting George W. Bush Presidential Library as the Location of Archival Materials.

Online Resources

Archived White House website

In January 2009, the White House archived its website as a method of preserving the online presence of the Administration of President George W. Bush. The site is a resource for photographs, press releases, and other public records of the Bush Presidency. (NOTE: This site is no longer updated; some links may no longer work properly.)

A specific "Hurricane Katrina Archive" section of the site lists links to all public statements and fact sheets related to Hurricane Katrina.
