Mr. Karl Rove
c/o Goeglein

(b)(6)

Dear Karl:

A warm greeting to you from Focus on the Family! Another Christmas season has come and gone, during which our great friend and extremely talented artist G. Harvey unveiled his latest painting prepared especially for our ministry. It's my pleasure to present you with this year's lithograph titled "The Slip of Dawn."

As you'll see, this most recent masterpiece depicts a breathtaking scene from New England's Nantucket Harbor. As G. Harvey surveyed the sun rising over this quaint and historic location, he was struck by the way in which God's presence seemed especially perceptible in the peaceful setting. The mood of this beautiful painting resonated with us as well, and seems like a particularly appropriate expression of our appreciation given the many ways in which you have made the Lord's presence evident through your friendship both to Shirley and me personally and to our ministry. Time and again you have been "like the first gleam of dawn" (Proverbs 4:18) for us, and it's our hope that this G. Harvey print will serve as a cherished reminder of our love and gratitude.

You are special to us, and we're counting on you to say the word if there's something Focus can do in return for your many kindnesses to us. Shirley and I hope for an opportunity to see you in the near future. Meanwhile, may God's grace and peace rest upon you and your family throughout 2005. Blessings to you!

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in cursive script, appearing to read "Jim", written over a horizontal line.
