All-

Can you let me know by early this coming week whether you have any objections to Viet speaking on judicial nominations to the Capitol Hill chapter of the Federalist Society.

Thanks.

BAB

Leonard,

Thank you and Congrats to you on the new chapter. I would love to oblige, but because it is on the Hill, I want input from DoJ and WH leg shops before I commit. Looks like I am pretty open in March, though.

Best,

viet

Viet-

I hope this email finds you well. I was so happy to hear about your marriage plans. Best wishes to you both!

I am writing in the hopes that you'd be willing to do a brief talk on the Hill regarding the judicial confirmations crisis, probably for some time in March. As you may have heard, the Federalist Society now has a Capitol Hill chapter that has received status as a CSO (Congressional Staff Organization). This would be the group's third meeting (Congressman John Shadegg and Boyden were the first two).

You would expect a lunch crowd of 50-70 staff and members. We probably would hold the meeting on the Senate side given the topic.

What do you think? Are there any dates in March where the 12-1 pm hour would not work?
