By Janell Cole

The Forum - 03/12/2003

BISMARCK ❖ ? The House ended its Tuesday afternoon session with an acrimonious debate on the U.S. Senate❖ ?s filibuster over a federal judicial nomination.

Republican legislators introduced House Concurrent Resolution 3077 urging North Dakota❖ ?s U.S. senators to support the floor vote and nomination of Miguel Estrada to the U.S. Court of Appeals for the District of Columbia Circuit.

❖ ?Over a year and a half has passed without a vote on the Senate floor because of partisan politics, including filibuster by Democratic senators,❖ ? it said.

House Minority Leader Merle Boucher, D-Rolette, protested the resolution was an inappropriate action for the Legislature, but it passed on a party line vote and now goes to the Senate. North Dakota❖ ?s House and Senate have overwhelming Republican majorities.

North Dakota❖ ?s U.S. senators, Kent Conrad and Byron Dorgan, both Democrats, have said they won❖ ?t agree to a vote unless Estrada answers ❖ ?basic questions❖ ? other nominees have answered.
