Preferred Citation: Type of document; names of sender and recipient, or title of document; date; White House Office of Records Management Subject Code and case number; box number; Collection Title and series/subseries, George W. Bush Presidential Library.

Administrative History: The White House Office of Records Management is responsible for the filing and retrieval of records created during the incumbent presidential administration. The use of a filing methodology for records created or received by the White House dates to at least the early years of the 20th century, and has undergone changes since that time to cope with the ever- expanding volume of paperwork handled by the President and his staff.

The White House Office of Records Management, or ORM (or WHORM) manages the office files of individual White House staff members, as well as administration records that are arranged by subject code and case file ID number according to their general subject matter.

Scope and Content Note: Correspondence, memoranda, proof pages, newsletters, White House publications, articles, a trip book, press clippings, books and publications. The publications include original print and copies of articles from various sources, including - journals, newspapers, periodicals and official White House publications. In addition, there is correspondence related to interview requests and staffing memoranda requesting comments on draft articles, proof pages and opinion pieces. The trip book included in this material is from President George W. Bush's trip to the Middle East in January 2008. Also included are copies of numerous signatures and inscriptions on publications to individuals by President George W. Bush. In addition, there are news clippings and White House News Summaries present, as well as correspondence regarding the design for the Public Papers of the Presidents of the United States and drafts of the foreword for President George W. Bush's fifth and sixth volumes.

System of Arrangement: Material is arranged by alphanumeric subcode and thereunder by case file number.
