Scope and Content

The materials in FOIA 2016-0365-F are a selective, not necessarily all inclusive, body of documents responsive to the topic of the FOIA. Researchers should consult the archivist about related materials.

FOIA 2016-0365-F requested photographs taken on June 14, 2004, of former President Bill Clinton, Hillary Clinton, and Chelsea Clinton with the White House Residence staff.

This FOIA primarily contains photographs taken during the June 14, 2004 visit by the Clinton family to the White House. The photographs consist of posed group shots of the Clintons with the White House Residence staff at the North Portico. Also included are candid shots of the Clintons greeting and talking with various members of the staff.

System of Arrangement

The materials in FOIA 2016-0365-F are a systematic body of documents responsive to the topic of the FOIA. Researchers should consult an archivist about related materials.

Documents responsive to this FOIA were found in these collection areas – George W. Bush Presidential Electronic Records.

The Executive Office of the President (EOP) instance of the Electronic Records Archive (ERA) contains electronic records created or received by President George W. Bush. These records are stored in Search and Access Sets (SAS) that represent their originating computer program.

MerlinOne contains 44 photographs.

A large group of approximately 100 people, including students and faculty, are posed for a group photo on the wide stone steps of a white building with classical architectural features like columns and a pediment. The group is arranged in several rows, with some individuals standing in the front and others seated or kneeling. The people are dressed in a variety of casual and semi-formal attire. The building's entrance is visible in the background, featuring a central doorway flanked by windows and a decorative pediment. The overall scene suggests a formal group portrait of a large organization or community.

A large group of approximately 100 people, including students and faculty, are posed for a group photo on the wide steps of the White House. The group is arranged in several rows, with some individuals standing in the front and others seated or standing behind them. The White House's iconic architecture, including its columns and entrance, is visible in the background. The group is diverse in age and attire, with many wearing blue shirts, possibly representing a specific organization or team.
