A photograph showing two men in dark suits and light-colored shirts standing and talking in a dimly lit reception area. The man on the left is looking towards the man on the right. In the background, there are large glass windows and other people, including a woman in a dark dress. The lighting is low, with some light coming from the windows and possibly from the stage area.

A group of men in suits, including President Obama, standing outdoors at night. They are gathered around a table, possibly for a press conference or a formal event. The lighting is dim, with some background lights visible.

A man in a dark suit and white shirt is walking on a sidewalk at night, pointing his right hand towards the entrance of a building. The building has a striped awning. To the right, there are several flags on poles, including the Canadian flag and the American flag. A red figure is visible in the background near the entrance.

A man in a dark suit and tie is walking towards the camera on a paved sidewalk. To his right, there are two flagpoles on stands, one with the Swiss flag and one with the American flag. In the background, a building with a striped awning and a dark car are visible.
