I was out of the office last week, but such Presidential events are planned weeks if not months in advance usually, and have to go through an elaborate vetting process. Hope it went well though. Looking forward to the 15th reunion.

Subject: Longshot

Brett:

I am about to commence on a longshot, I appreciate any indulgence or assistance you can provide.

I am on the board of a charity called "Wings for Children". Wings provides free air transportation to ambulatory children of needy families. We serve the market that is within a 500 mile radius of Pittsburgh. We provide nearly 100 free flights a year.

This weekend (8/25 - 8/26) we are holding our annual fundraiser at the Allegheny County Airport (just south of Pittsburgh). Pilots and plane owners have donated their time and resources. The fundraiser is called "Fly Around Town for Pennies a Pound". We raise money by charging the public $0.15 per pound to take a half hour flight around the city of Pittsburgh.

It came to my attention that President Bush will be landing at the county airport this Sunday, presumably interrupting our fundraiser for a brief period. Obviously, we would love any chance to have the President meet our Wings founder (Mark Holewinski) and shake hands. It would provide an outstanding opportunity for us to raise awareness of the good we are doing in the community.

[P6/b6]

I hope all is well with you. See you next Spring.

Sincerely,

Stephen L. Kline, CFA
