Let's try to get a Thursday or Friday afternoon in December, perhaps 5th, 6th, 12th, or 19th. (I am out the 13th and 20th seems a bad idea for scheduling).

Subject: Meeting with Group Interested in Presidential Records

Last week at the White House Radio Day event on the North Lawn I spoke with Judge Gonzales, Brett. We talked about the release you all have done of all of the original Reagan records and also about having another meeting now that six months has gone by since the last one we had in May. He said it was fine with him. I know that you are going to be busy with the upcoming congressional session so something next month would probably be better. Let me know what would be good for you and Judge Gonzales and we can work around your timing. Friday afternoons seem to be good with the President often going to Camp David and the rhythms of the White House slowing down a bit.

Warm Wishes,

Martha
