Brett

I want to thank you for taking time from your busy schedule to come to Iowa for the Iowa State Bar Association Federal Practice Seminar. Your presentation was excellent and well-received.

Roger: My assistant Raquel is calling you about the flights and to obtain a credit card from you, which is necessary under our rules. I plan to arrive at 1:30 on Monday at Des Moines. If the weather looks bad, I will switch that morning to an earlier flight to make sure there are no problems.

Attached are the President's book-end speeches (May 9, 2001, and October 30, 2002) on the judicial confirmation process, which I will discuss during my remarks. I suggest that you include them in the CLE materials.
